

Johan Pion (1957) is professor of Talent Identification and Development in sports at HAN University of Applied Sciences in The Netherlands. He obtained his doctoral degree in Health Sciences in November 2015 at Ghent University in Belgium, with the study entitled 'The Flemish Sports Compass, From sport orientation to elite performance prediction'. He has years of experience in education and research and he also made his mark in the area of sports promotion and training for elite and other trainers. For over 25 years he has been making his knowledge available to the Belgian gymnastics community. Johan Pion began as a professor at HAN Institute of Sports and exercise Studies in 2016. He leads the research conducted by the expertise team on the early identification and development of talent ion sports.